4. Report of Officers and Agents
❖ President's Report <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Signing of Dual Admission Agreement Between LCCC & Misericordia University 	President Leary began his report by welcoming Misericordia University's President, Dr. Daniel J. Myers. President Leary stated Misericordia University and Luzerne County Community College have always had a strong partnership which has enabled thousands of our students over the years to have an opportunity to receive a bachelors degree at an outstanding university. That partnership has included a number of articulation agreements in our academic programs. When President Leary first met with Misericordia University's new President, Dr. Myers, he explained how passionate he was about community colleges –the idea that all students who graduate from the community college should have the opportunity both through accessibility and affordability to complete their bachelors degree. As a result of Dr. Myers commitment to Luzerne County Community College students and that opportunity means we will be able to enhance our partnership with additional measures to provide the opportunity and affordable to our students. Dr. Daniel J. Myers, President, Misericordia University stated that it was his pleasure to attend tonight's meeting. After his appointment in July, he had the opportunity to meet with Rosana Reyes, Vice President of Enrollment Management and Student Affairs and President Leary. They had an immediate connection – the shared passion for improving student's lives through access to higher education was just so apparent and he knew through a partnership we could do even more. Dr. Myers stated the partnership allows students to transfer to Misericordia without losing any time or losing any credits; and guarantee they will complete their education in four semesters. In addition, students that come to Misericordia from LCCC, Misericordia will extend their financial commitment to our students receiving financial assistance in order to complete their degree. At this time, Dr. Myers thanked everyone who worked to develop the partnership at both Luzerne County Community College	N/A

and Misericordia University.

The LCCC Early College Program provides the opportunity for students to earn college credit while still in high school as well as a chance to explore several college majors and potential careers. The Early College Program also assists with College readiness and improves academic success. Funding is available through donations to the EITC (Educational Improvement Tax Credit) Program which is designed to enhance educational programs and opportunities for the region's students. Funding can be used toward the cost of tuition and books. . This year, the LCCC Foundation, Inc. received $341,000 in EITC contributions. High school students are eligible to enroll in college classes at LCCC for the spring 2022 and summer 2022 semesters. Students can use funds to offset the cost of tuition and books.

President Leary stated, it was his pleasure to report that this year's Nursing NCLEX pass rate, for first-time testers was 95.12%. The national pass rate for first-time testers at the Associate level was 80.45%.

President Leary extended his congratulations to Dr. Cheryl Lesser, Vice President of Academic Affairs, who accepted the position as President of Great Bay Community College in New Hampshire. Dr. Lesser will assume her new responsibility in several months and at this time, President personally expressed his deep appreciation for her exceptional leadership and the significant accomplishments achieved in the academic realm over the past several years. I know you share in expressing congratulations to Dr. Cheryl Lesser in this wonderful career opportunity.

Dr. Cheryl Lesser thanked everyone in attendance for the opportunity to have been able to work across the institution. Dr. Lesser noted this would be her last Board meeting, stating that it has been an amazing four years - she is going back to her New England roots and back to the sea coast.

- Audit Report

Shawn Strauss, Maher Duessel presented the Audit Report. The College received a unmodified opinion which is a clean opinion. The total assets of the College is $96 million which is similar to prior year, total liabilities are $66 million, compared to $59 in prior year, total net income is a loss of $4 million; compared to income of $1.4 million in prior year.

HERFF Funding which is the federal response to the coronavirus.
CARES ACT – LCCC awarded $3.2 million
CRESSA - LCCC awarded $6.8 million
ARPA – LCCC awarded $11.8 million

Total $22 million. The college spent approximately $7 million; with $14 million to be expended over 2022-2023.

- Treasurer's Report

President Leary stated due to the presentation of the Audit Report, there is no Treasurer's Report to present at this time.

- Foundation Report

Rebecca Brominski, Executive Director, Institutional Advancement and Foundation, Inc., stated as she looks back over the Fall semester incredibly grateful to her donors, community friends and all that believe in and support our community college students. As an overwhelming show of generosity, the Foundation has received over a half million dollars in contributions this second quarter of the year. This included $341,000 in EITC to support Early College; $70,000 from our annual dinner to support scholarships and student assistance funds; and over $108,000 in new scholarships and renewal commitments. These funds will make a significant impact and will go a long way in supporting the region's high school students and our new and current students. All of the support could not have been possible without our donors and giving community.

Events held this past year we celebrated was the 20th anniversary of the Hazleton Center, 32nd Alumni Craft Festival , 39th annual scholarship

	dinner, 15th anniversary of our Schulman gallery and the 10th anniversary of our Joseph A. Paglianite Culinary institute. Thank you to everyone here and to our trustees who participated in these events. We look forward to 2022 to continue to support our students and celebrate their accomplishments as their success is truly our success. Thank you and have a wonderful holiday filled with happiness and especially good health. President Leary wished everyone a very wonderful holiday and healthy New Year.
